CHICAGO—May 17, 2007—Fieldglass, Inc., a leading provider of contingent workforce management and services procurement software, was named a Finalist today in the Most Innovative Company category in The 2007 American Business Awards, which are also known as the Stevie Awards.

Hailed as “the business world’s own Oscars” (New York Post , April 27, 2005), The American Business Awards are the only national, all-encompassing awards program honoring great performances in business.

Fieldglass received its finalist recognition for the Most Innovative Company based on excellent and consistent operational performance, state-of-the-art Software as a Service solution-delivery, and an aggressive and comprehensive approach to globalizing the solution offering – InSite. “Fieldglass is honored to be recognized by such a diverse and distinguished group of business professionals nationwide,” said Jai Shekhawat, CEO of Fieldglass. “It is the pioneering spirit of the entire Fieldglass team that keeps us at the forefront of innovation in our industry.”

“Being named a Finalist in The American Business Awards is an important achievement,” said Michael Gallagher, founder and president of The Stevie Awards. “It means that independent business executives have agreed that the nominee is worthy of national recognition.”

Stevie winners will be announced during the annual gala on Monday, June 11 at the Marriott Marquis Hotel in New York City. More than 700 executives from across the U.S.A. are expected to attend. The ceremonies will be videocast on the Internet and broadcast on radio, and hosted by Larry Wilmore of TV’s THE DAILY SHOW with JON STEWART.
