FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MEDIA ALERT: FIELDGLASS TO EXHIBIT AT THE 11th ANNUAL HR TECHNOLOGY CONFERENCE & EXPOSITION

Fieldglass to Showcase its Unified Approach to Acquiring Human Capital

CHICAGO—October 14, 2008— Fieldglass, Inc., provider of the leading unified platform for acquiring contingent workers, service providers and direct hires, will exhibit at the 11th Annual HR Technology Conference and Exposition, October 15-16 at McCormick Place in Chicago. Fieldglass will showcase its award-winning InSite® software-as-a-service product suite at booth #1120.

InSite enables hundreds of organizations to successfully find and manage contingent workers and service providers. With the addition this year of InSite Recruiter, Fieldglass customers can leverage known talent pools such as alumni and retirees, acquire full and part time employees and directly source specialized contingent labor. The software can be managed in-house or by recruitment process outsourcers (RPOs), providing companies with greater program management flexibility.

“By acquiring all types of workers through one platform, companies can channel work to the appropriate resource, whether contingent, direct or outsourced,” said Jai Shekhawat, CEO, Fieldglass. “We are excited to introduce InSite to the attendees at HR Technology, and demonstrate how using the solution can help them take a more strategic approach to their workforce.”

The HR Technology Conference and Exposition is the industry's largest event. More information can be found at www.hrtechnologyconference.com.
